This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. Bound by F. Bedford, in Olive Morocco, t.e.g., uncut, from original boards. J. Payne Collier's copy, with note by him on back of title page. "The Preface to this Book was written by Charles Lamb, who gave this copy.—J. P. C. The author of the letters is James White, a singular man if one considers his whole life, tho' if one were to view him only as he is now one should say that (he) is a very common good sort of a shopkeeper. He was educated at Christ's Hospital with Chas. Lamb, and until about sixteen was esteemed a dull boy. Just at that time he read Shakspere and had a knack of imitating him. Soon after sixteen, or between that age and 20, and for three or four years after their publication, he launched out as a professed wit, humourist, and eccentric. For some disgust, however, he went back again to his original apparent stupidity, in which state he remains to this day, having cut most of his former companions and having devolved into the merest plodding man of business that was ever seen—never permitting a thought to extend beyond his counter. He keeps an office for receiving advertisements for the country papers in Fleet Street and has also some insignificant place in Christ's Hospital."

Archibald Constable's name on flyleaf.

This volume is full of MS. corrections and notes, evidently made by Ritson in revising "The Caledonian Muse" as a basis for two new volumes of "Select Scotish Poems" (see Ritson's Life, by Haslewood, note to page 34). Its contents are:—

(1) The 232 pages of "The Caledonian Muse," published in 1821 by Triphook, with the following omissions:—Pages 27-34, 49-94, 131-138, 187-192, 227-232.

(2) The unpublished pages 233-342, which would have completed the book; and pages 343-348, part of "Supplement, Poems by Living Writers." There is a vignette by Stothard at page 342.

(3) "Ode on Solitude," by James Grainger; "The Cotter's Saturday Night" and "To a Mountain Daisy," by Burns—all in the MS. of Ritson.

(4) "Select Scotish Poems," pages 1-96. With Ritson's MS. of one of the pieces.
